

Stuyvesant High School Alumni Association
2019 Board of Directors Slate

---

Name	Grad Year	Bio
Christina Alfonso 	2001	Christina has been a Director on the Board since Spring 2012 serving as Chair of the Diversity Committee. She works closely with fellow Stuyvesant alumni, alumni of other specialized high schools, current students, and parents of high school and middle school students on various outreach initiatives, (including StuyPrep), programs and events pertaining to current Stuyvesant students. Christina also works on city-wide initiatives regarding promoting educational equity while keeping the SHSAT. She is passionate about education and healthcare and also serves on the Junior Board of the Adolescent Health Center of Mount Sinai. Christina currently works in the Neuroscience Department at Barnard College and plans to begin medical school in the summer of 2020.
Edward Balaban 	1969	Edward E. Balaban is a class of 1969 alumnus. He earned a BS in Industrial Arts Education from SUNY Oswego, completed a MS in Journalism/Public Relations from Syracuse University and was awarded a CAS in Educational Administration from Hofstra University. Balaban's careers progressed from teacher to Navy Officer to school administrator and then to public affairs specialist. Concurrent with each position, he held several leadership positions at Lions International. He has long supported Stuyvesant High School, coordinating his class' reunions, as well as other alumni and veteran organizations. Balaban is retired and lives near Saratoga Springs, New York. At SHSAA, Ed serves as Chair of the Communications Committee.
Edward Chapnick, MD 	1977	Edward lives in Brooklyn and is Senior Vice Chair of Medicine and Director of the Infectious Diseases Division at Maimonides Medical Center, also in Brooklyn. His teaching experience includes being on the faculty of SUNY Downstate Medical Center (Professor of Clinical Medicine) and the Albert Einstein College of Medicine (Adjunct Professor of Medicine). He has been a mentor in the Alumni Association's Alumni Mentoring Program since 2017.

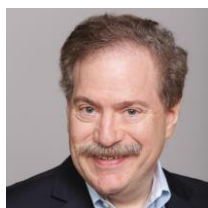

Daniel Egers, JD

2003

Daniel Egers is a practicing attorney with Greenberg Traurig, LLP specializing in land use and zoning, where he represents developers, institutions and non-profit organizations before the New York City Council, City Planning Commission, Board of Standards and Appeals, and Landmarks Preservation Commission. Dan has been a member of SHSAA's Allocations and Scholarships Committee since 2007, is founder of the Conor Moran ('03) Memorial Scholarship, and has been a Director since 2013. He is a graduate of Georgetown University's School of Foreign Service and Columbia Law School.

Michael Hartig

1972

Michael Hartig is a Founding Partner of Capital Markets Advisors, bringing over 30 years of Banking & Capital Markets experience for a wide range of financial services institutions, including investment banks, private banks, mortgage companies, broker-dealers, asset managers, family offices, hedge funds, industry utilities and related service vendors. In addition to being a mentor in the Alumni Mentoring Program, Michael has been consistently involved in the Development, Membership & Events Committees as well as Board meetings.

David Jacobs, MD

1987

David is originally from London, England and is a board-certified internist trained in New Jersey. He obtained a BS in biochemistry from Stony Brook University, medical degree from UMDNJ Rutgers Medical School and an MBA from Fairleigh Dickinson University. David is currently an executive in biotech and has worked for Pfizer and for Johnson & Johnson. He is an avid cyclist and volunteers at local community hospitals and in the Caribbean providing pro bono medical service.

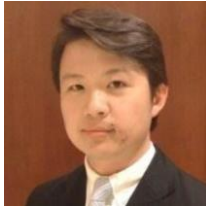

Soo Kim

1993

Mr. Kim is the Managing Partner and Chief Investment Officer of Standard General. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of Twin River Worldwide Holdings (NYSE: TRWH) and Maidstone Insurance Company, a subsidiary of Standard Diversified (NYSE: SDI). Mr. Kim is also a Director of Pursuit (formerly known as Coalition for Queens), a Director of the Cary Institute of Ecosystem Studies, and the President of the Stuyvesant High School Alumni Association. He holds an A.B. from the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University.

Ling Wu Kong, JD

2001

Ling is an attorney practicing venture capital and mergers & acquisition law in New York for the past eight years. He is currently a partner in the New York office of McDermott Will & Emery LLP. He graduated with a B.A. from Columbia University and a J.D. from Boston University School of Law. While a student, Ling was active on The Spectator, The Indicator and participated in SING! He organized the five- and ten-year reunions for his graduating class. More recently, Ling has been actively helping, planning, and participating in different Alumni Association industry events, working to expand membership and has been serving as Second Vice President.

Brett Lewis

2002

Brett Lewis is an alumnus of the class of 2002. He works at Google and has had roles in finance and strategy consulting. Brett is passionate about Stuyvesant (second generation Stuyvesantian), has been involved in planning his class's 10-year reunion and tech events for alumni and has been a Director on the board for three years. He has worked on non-profit boards at Bridgespan, is passionate about strategic planning and using digital innovation to continue the success of the Alumni Association. He holds an MBA from the Wharton School and MSc from the LSE.

Michael Loebel

2005

After graduating from Stuyvesant in '05, Michael earned a degree in International Politics from Georgetown University's School of Foreign Service. He has spent the years after graduation working in Consulting and Finance, with an emphasis on analytics and technology. He is currently working as a Manager at McKinsey, where he leads technology development globally for McKinsey's Pharmaceutical and Medical Products practice. For the last few years, he has also served as a Mentor Leader for Stuyvesant's Alumni Mentoring Program.

Bart Schwartz, JD

1964

For more than 30 years, Bart has managed investigations, prosecutions and security assessments and provided sophisticated investigative services. He served as Chief of the Criminal Division in the Southern District of New York, where he oversaw prosecutions related to fraud, organized crime, narcotics, and other criminal activity. He is the Chairman of Guidepost Solutions and serves as the Federal Monitor to oversee the implementation of the New York City Housing Authority's Agreement with HUD, SDNY and the City of New York to achieve decent, safe, and sanitary living conditions for its residents. He also serves on the board of HMS Holdings Corp. (NASDAQ:HMSY).

Lillian Seu, PhD

2001

Lillian attended Barnard College, then UCSF for her Ph.D. She then received an NIH Fogarty Clinical Research Fellowship in Zambia (2011-2014) to strengthen lab diagnostic platforms for HIV. Currently, she works as a scientific investigator at Bristol-Myers Squibb developing immunotherapies to cancer. Lillian is passionate about STEM mentorship and has served as a mentor for several Stuyvesant students as well as participated in prior healthcare career panels.

Eric Treiber, MD

1968

Dr. Treiber practices dermatology and skin cancer surgery in Rye, NY and is an associate professor of Dermatology at Columbia University. The education he received and life skills learned at Stuyvesant were key to his life's successes, and he is eager to contribute to the school and its current students.