

Stuyvesant High School Alumni Association
2020 Board of Directors Slate

Name	Grad Year	Bio
Christina Alfonso 	2001	Christina Alfonso has been a Director since Spring 2012 and has served on the Executive Committee as Secretary, on the Governance Committee, and as a Chair of the Diversity Committee. She works closely with fellow Stuyvesant alumni, alumni of other specialized high schools, current students, and parents of high school and middle school students on various outreach initiatives (including StuyPrep), programs and events pertaining to current Stuyvesant students. Christina also works on city-wide initiatives regarding promoting educational equity while keeping the SHSAT. She is passionate about education and healthcare and also serves on the Junior Board of the Adolescent Health Center of Mount Sinai. She is grateful for all that Stuyvesant High School has done for her, and is eager to give back by continuing her service as a Director.
Edward Balaban 	1969	Edward E. Balaban is a class of 1969 alumnus. He has a BS in Industrial Arts Education from SUNY Oswego and a MS in Journalism/Public Relations from Syracuse University and was awarded a CAS in Educational Administration from Hofstra University. Balaban has worked as a teacher, a Navy Officer, a school administrator and a public affairs specialist. Concurrent with each position, he held several leadership positions at Lions International. He has long supported Stuyvesant High School, coordinating his class' reunions, as well as other alumni and veteran organizations. Balaban is retired and lives near Saratoga Springs, New York. At SHSAA, Ed serves as Chair of the Communications Committee.
Edward Chapnick, MD 	1977	Edward Chapnick is in his second term as a member of the Board of Directors. He serves on the Allocations and Governance Committees. He has also been part of the Association's Mentoring Program for the past three years. Edward would like to continue his service in these important endeavors. He works as a Senior Vice Chair of Medicine and Director of the Infectious Diseases Division at Maimonides Medical Center in Brooklyn, which is also where he resides. His teaching experience includes being on the faculty of the Albert Einstein College of Medicine (Professor of Medicine), where he also serves on the Admissions Committee.

Hal Diamond

1978

Hal Diamond was a Director with Standard & Poor's Corporate Ratings for 25 years. He received his MBA from NYU and his Bachelor's in Finance and French from SUNY Albany. Hal is the originator of the Stuyvesant H.S. Alumni Association Industry Events series, on which he works closely with the Alumni Association to coordinate. These events bring together alumni from all class years in various industries, and have increased dues-paying memberships to the Association. He also organized events honoring 50 years since the "First Girls" broke the gender barrier at Stuyvesant, and another honoring Notable Black Alumni. Hal currently serves as the Chair of the Development Committee.

Daniel Egers, JD

2003

Daniel Egers is a practicing attorney with Greenberg Traurig, LLP specializing in land use and zoning, and a graduate of Georgetown University and Columbia Law School. He was first elected to the Board in 2013 and has been active with the Alumni Association since 2007 when he co-founded the Conor Moran '03 Memorial Scholarship. Daniel is a past Chair of the Allocations and Scholarship Committee and the Employment Committees, and has served as a Vice President. He currently serves as Chair of the Governance Committee. By serving another term on the Board, he hopes to continue his positive contribution to the Governance and Employment Committees and his long-standing involvement with Allocations and Scholarships.

David Gelobter

1984

David Gelobter is a Managing Director of MC Credit Partners, a provider of capital solutions to middle market companies. Prior to joining MC, David was the Managing Principal of Emerson Capital, a long/short equity fund that he founded in 2006. David holds a MBA from Harvard Business School and a BA from Williams College. Over the last year, David has worked with the StuyPrep program to make it more accessible to middle school students, and to make the experience of the Stuyvesant student tutors more valuable. David would like to work to maintain the culture of excellence at Stuy and continue working with the students to give back to the city. David is a Trustee of New York Public Radio and a Board Member of Mobile Technologies Inc.

Michael Hartig

1972

Michael Hartig is a Founding Partner of Capital Markets Advisors, bringing over 30 years of Banking & Capital Markets experience for a wide range of financial services institutions, including investment banks, private banks, mortgage companies, broker-dealers, asset managers, family offices, hedge funds, industry utilities and related service vendors. Michael has been consistently involved the Alumni Mentoring Program and the Membership & Events Committees during his years on the board and has served as Class Marshal of his class for many years and helped organize events honoring the First Girls of Stuyvesant. In another term on the Board of Directors, he hopes to help grow membership and donations, and the value and services offered by the Alumni Association.

Yi-Shan Huang

1996

Yi-Shan Huang is a private equity real estate investor with 20 years of experience investing in the US and Asia, on behalf of some of the largest and most sophisticated investors in the world. She enjoys analyzing geopolitical events, finding patterns, comparing and contrasting across markets, and investing along macro-economic themes. She is an avid reader (of course!), loves travel, music, competitive sports, and yoga. Yi-Shan is a proud graduate of Stuyvesant High School and Cornell University, where she holds a B.S. in Policy Analysis and Management, an interdisciplinary major with studies focused on government, economics, statistics, and ethics.

David Jacobs, MD

1987

David Jacobs is originally from London, England and is a board-certified internist trained in New Jersey. He obtained a BS in biochemistry from Stony Brook University, a medical degree from UMDNJ Rutgers Medical School and an MBA from Fairleigh Dickinson University. David is currently an executive in biotech and has worked for Pfizer and for Johnson & Johnson. He is an avid cyclist and volunteers at local community hospitals and in the Caribbean providing pro bono medical service. During his first year on the Board of Directors, he served as Co-Chair of the Diversity Committee and was heavily involved with StuyPrep.

Alice Kim

1998

Alice Kim is an investment banker turned fashion executive who currently works on a start-up fashion company. She is eager to make a difference at Stuyvesant by serving on the Alumni Association's Board of Directors. She helped plan her class's 5-, 10-, 15-, and 20-year reunions, and is currently Co-Chairing the 2020 Gala. Alice loves Stuy as it helped shape so much of who she is today, and opened doors that would not otherwise have been open to her. She would now like to give back with her time and network to enhance the Stuyvesant Committee, especially on StuyPrep and Diversity initiatives, enhancing career advancement for students and alumni through the alumni network, and organizing events. She also believes fundraising is essential and hopes to help increase donations to the Alumni Association to support students' extracurricular activities and their educations beyond high school.

Kent Kim

2005

Kent Kim is an alumnus from the Stuyvesant class of 2005. He attended Princeton University where he obtained a degree in economics. Since then, Kent has worked in various roles in the financial services industry. Kent currently serves on the board of a private company, and has been an observer on several other boards of directors. Much of his contribution to Alumni Association has been through StuyPrep, which he helped to found in 2016. He also serves as Treasurer. In another term on the Board of Directors, he hopes to diversify his contributions.

Soo Kim

1993

Soo Kim was a Founding Partner of Standard General and is the Managing partner and Chief Investment Officer of the firm. Soo is currently a member of the Board of Directors of Media General Inc (NYSE: MEG) and the Board of managers of ALST Casino Holdco, the owner and operator of the Aliante Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada. He is also a Director of Greenwich House, and a Director of Coalition for Queens. He graduated with an A.B. from the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University.

Ling Wu Kong, JD

2001

Ling Wu Kong is an attorney practicing venture capital and mergers & acquisition law in New York for the past nine years. He is currently a partner in the New York office of McDermott Will & Emery LLP. He graduated with a B.A. from Columbia University and a J.D. from Boston University School of Law. While a student, Ling was active on The Spectator, The Indicator and participated in SING! He organized the 5- and 10-year reunions for his graduating class. More recently, Ling has actively served on the Communications, Governance, and Allocations Committees. His main goal is to help the students connect with alumni and develop internship and career opportunities.

Jonah Kupperstock

2009

Jonah Kupperstock is an alumnus from the Stuyvesant class of 2009. After graduating college, Jonah produced a Cannes Short Film, and DJ'ed around the world for a year. Since returning to New York, he has been working as a Product Lead at Google, and assisting with several social impact initiatives, including Grow with Google, Ad Grants, C4Q and COOP.cx.

Brett Lewis

2002

Brett Lewis is an alumnus of the class of 2002. He attended McGill, LSE and Wharton and currently works in strategy and private equity. He is passionate about Stuyvesant and helped plan his class's 10-year reunion. He has worked on non-profit boards at Bridgespan, is passionate about strategic planning and using digital innovation to continue the success of the Alumni Association over the past three years. He hopes to work to unlock the power of Stuyvesant alumni to support each other, the school, and public education.

Anna Nikolayevsky

1988

Anna Nikolayevsky graduated from NYU with a Bachelor's degree and completed her MBA at Columbia University. As the founder and current CIO of Axel Capital Management, a fundamentally driven alternatives firm specializing in global equities, she invests in equities across a variety of sectors and geographies. Prior to Axel Capital's founding, Anna was an analyst at Zweig-DiMenna Associates, LLC, a multi-billion dollar hedge fund where she was responsible for sourcing and managing long/short equity investments in multiple industries. She has received multiple accolades for her work; in 2011, Ernst & Young LLP named Anna one of 50 Leading Women in Hedge Funds. Most recently, she accepted the Investor's Choice awards for Emerging Fund of 2015 and the Emerging Global Equity fund of 2015. She attributes some of her success to Stuyvesant. She recalls her Stuyvesant experience fondly and is deeply appreciative of the school's meritocratic nature. Anna has previous board experience at Lincoln Center and Girls Who Invest and is eager to continue her contributions as a member of the Board of Directors.

Bart Schwartz, JD

1964

Bart Schwartz has served as a trial lawyer, corporate advisor and CEO of a private company and a unit of a public company. For 30+ years, he has managed complex investigations, prosecutions and security assessments for a wide array of clients. He is the chairman of Guidepost Solutions and serves as the federal monitor to oversee the implementation of the New York City Housing Authority's agreement with HUD, SDNY and the City of New York to achieve decent, safe, and sanitary living conditions for its residents. He also serves on the board of HMS Holdings Corp. (NASDAQ:HMSY) and chairs its Compliance Committee and is a member of its Audit Committee. On the Alumni Association Board of Directors, Bart is a Co-Chair of the 2020 Gala. He hopes to grow participation and donations in another term on the Board.

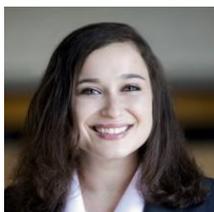

Lillian Seu, PhD

2001

Lillian attended Barnard College, then UCSF for her Ph.D. She then received an NIH Fogarty Clinical Research Fellowship in Zambia (2011-2014) to strengthen lab diagnostic platforms for HIV. Lillian is passionate about STEM mentorship and has served as a mentor for several Stuyvesant students as well as participated in prior healthcare career panels. She works as a T cell immunologist at Allogene Therapeutics to genetically engineer T cells to treat cancers. She currently also serves on the volunteer Editorial Board of the Journal of ImmunoTherapy of Cancer. During her two years on the Board, she's been involved in the Mentorship Program as a Mentor and Mentor Leader. Lillian has also been a StuyPrep Volunteer and Chair of the 2019 Benefit for Stuyvesant inaugural gala and has organized events for Stuy alumni in the San Francisco Bay Area, and would like to continue to increase and engage membership in the Bay Area.

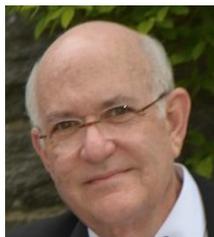

Elina Tetelbaum, JD

2003

Elina is a partner in the Corporate Department at Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, where she focuses on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance and securities laws matters. She completed her undergraduate degree at Harvard College and obtained her JD from Yale Law School, where she was a Paul & Daisy Soros Fellow and served as editor-in-chief of the Yale Journal on Regulation and editor of the Yale Law Journal. After law school, Ms. Tetelbaum served as a law clerk on the Ninth Circuit. She is also the secretary of the NYC Bar Association's corporation law committee and the president of The Seneca, Inc., a non-profit organization that supports women at Harvard College. At SHSAA, she serves as Co-Chair of the Governance Committee and First Vice President. She feels she still has a difference to make at the Alumni Association and wants to continue to help streamline the organization.

Eric Treiber

1968

Dr. Treiber practices dermatology and skin cancer surgery in Rye, NY and is an associate professor of Dermatology at Columbia University. The education he received and the life skills he learned at Stuyvesant were key to his life's successes, and Eric is eager to contribute to the school and its current students. Eric has served on the Board of Directors for one year where he is involved in the Allocations and Fundraising Committee and has continued his longstanding participation in the Mentoring Program. He hopes to make an increased contribution as he continues his service on the Board of Directors.